

G0612 – Oracle 11i Using and Maintaining Approvals

Course Objectives

Our Self Service Fundamentals Course welcomes you to the world of Approvals but for the those of you that are not looking to dip your toe as part of another module, but want to become the Master of Approvals this course will serve that need, leaving you ready to tackle the world of AME. Below is a detailed instruction of the course objectives.

- Define Number Attributes and Supervisor approval types when building list creation rules
- Understand the options found in the test tab and how to create test transactions
- Define Currency Attributes and Job Level approvals when building list creation rules
- Define Substitution Rules
- Define Boolean Attributes when defining approval groups
- Understanding and defining conditions and exception rules
- Defining rules with rule effective dates
- Defining line items, with restrictive evaluation (yes / no rules)
- Understanding dual chain approval types with non default starting points
- Defining shared rules
- Understanding the concept of prioritizing rules

Who Should Attend	Prerequisites	Duration
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Functional Implementer	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• None	2 Days

Mapping Business Requirements

Building List Creation Rules

Testing the List Creation Rule

List Modification and Substitution Rules

Defining and Using Approval Groups

Defining Exception Rules for List Creation

Effective Dates for Rules and Attributes

Line Level Attributes and String Attribute Types

Dual Chains of Authority

Handling Multiple Rules on Transactions